MAIN PAGE INSTRUCTIONS

- Hoop stabilizer. Pin felt to stabilizer
- Stitch color 1 to secure felt
- Stitch placement stitches

- Stitch tackdown stitches, numbers, and placement stitches for velcro

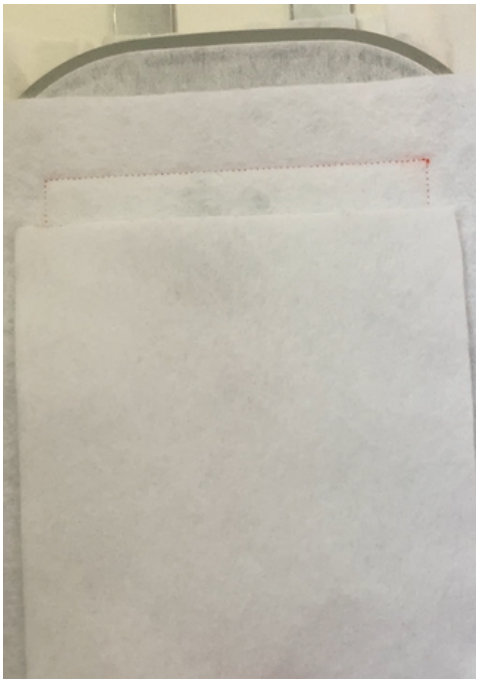

- Sew velcro tackdown stitches.
- Optional: Trim velcro pieces so they aren't quite as big and fit the front page nicely.

- Turn hoop over and tape or pin a piece of felt to the back.
- Stitch next step to secure the back piece.

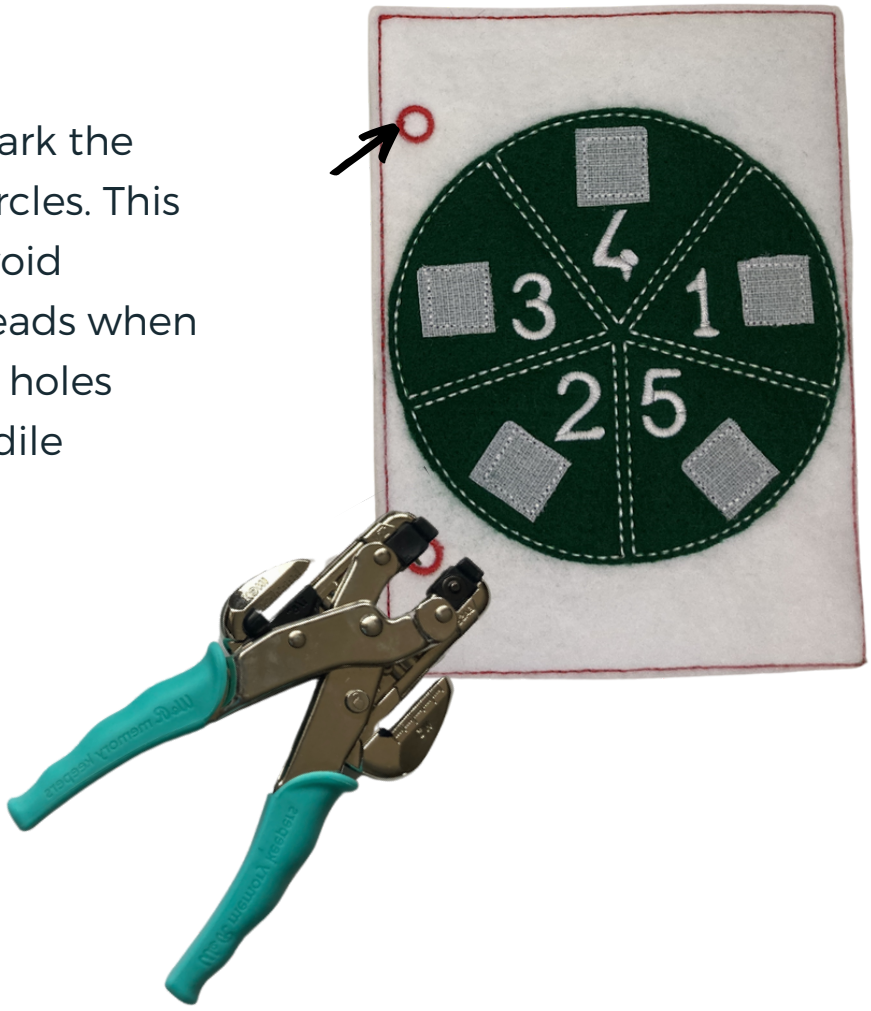

- Optional: If you'd like to add a pocket to the back, cut another piece of felt about and inch shorter then the height of the page and pin it about an inch below the top edge.
- Stitch next step to secure the back piece.
- Stitch final step to sew the binder holes.

- Remove from hoop and trim close to all outer edges.
- Use the lighter to heat seal all edges of the page, both front and back

- Use a pen to mark the center of the circles. This will help you avoid cutting the threads when you cut out the holes with the Cropadile

Your quiet book page is finished!

Now you can make a variety of pages and then use the book rings to hold them all together!
